Success

To laugh often and much ;
to win the respect of intelligent people and affection of children ; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends ; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others ; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition ; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson
